Pentacle (DanceWorks, Inc.) is a non-profit administrative support organization for the performing arts.

Mara Greenberg and Ivan Sygoda, Directors

Pentacle's Educational Programming mines unparalleled expertise and connections in the dance community to provide middle school, high school and college students with an opportunity to explore many different careers in dance. Through hands-on training, students identify new areas of interest, practice skills, and test their capabilities while refining their career goals. Your support will help Pentacle continue to provide young dancers with a unique chance to discover their potential and understand how they can remain connected to dance throughout their lives.

Pentacle's exemplary projects and services have for over three decades been a fundamental resource for the contemporary performing arts community. Pentacle operates at the intersection of choreographic talent and infrastructural need, enabling some of our most exciting dance and performance artists to do what they do best...create works of enduring art.
